MODERATOR:

Joseph L. Quaranta, MD
President, Community Medical Group (CMG)

As president of CMG, Dr. Quaranta is dedicated to the preservation of independent practices while embracing the trifecta of health-care today: improving the patient experience, improving the health of populations and reducing costs.

PANELISTS:

Adam Dworkin
Practice Administrator, Griffin Family Physicians

You might think there is little in common between Dworkin Chevrolet and healthcare. For Adam though, who has worked in both arenas, it's about process improvement that yields a better, sustainable and loyal result for everyone.

Alice Nelson Ferguson
Patient Voice SIM Consumer Advisory Board

As a 30+ year survivor of AIDS, Alice is a passionate and vocal proponent for better healthcare outcomes for all patients through advocacy, education and engagement.

Irene Furlong
Director of Clinical Services, Stamford Health Medical Center

For more than five years, Irene has been directing all quality of care services and various initiatives including PCMH recognition and Accountable Care Organization development.

David R. Howlett, MD
East Granby Family Practice

Dr. Howlett is known for his love of children and families. He's also known as an early adopter of efforts to improve patient care and experience by using electronic medical records and gaining certification as one of the first nationally recognized Patient Centered Medical Homes.

Barbara Ziogas, MD
Pediatrician

Dr. Ziogas was a special education teacher before becoming a pediatrician. It helps her care for children with special health needs and educational challenges. She practices medicine in a way that looks at the whole child in their environment.
